

SAINT KATHERINE CHRONICLE / MAY - JUNE 2009

A Word from your Pastor

Christ is risen! A simple statement, but a powerful one because it says so much.

Three simple words convey the fact that there was a man named Christ who was killed and buried, and then came back to life. Something no one had ever done before. The words 'Christ is risen' imply that something unbelievable for any ordinary human to do, was done. For Christ to rise from the dead, he must have had some type of incredible power. A power that could defeat the previously undefeated death. When we say 'Christ is risen', we are saying exactly what the centurion at the crucifixion said when he saw the earthquake and what took place, "Truly this was the Son of God!" (Matthew 27:54)

Three simple words that convey such tremendous meaning. For those of us who understand the meaning, these three words change us...they change our outlook on life, our attitude, our entire being. When we say Christ is risen, we are saying that we believe in someone who as God and man smashed the domain of death and showed us a path that, if we chose to follow, would lead us to a wonderful life that never ends.

The irony that three simple words can convey something so complex and powerful fascinates me. In fact, I try to use that same concept of 'simplicity pointing to something much greater' as my guide in all that I do as a priest.

For example, this year during holy week, we conducted the services in their entirety, but in a concise and succinct manner to relate the powerful essence of the service without any overblown dramatic flairs or any long, tedious, and unintelligible intervals. As a result, we received more positive feedback regarding the services of holy week than ever before.

I believe it is important today, to get right to the heart of the matter...any matter, but especially the matter of faith. And the best way to do that is to make it as easy as possible for parishioners to understand what is going on, and then let the beauty of the Orthodox Christian faith and worship take it from there.

Truly, Christ is risen!
