

SAINT KATHERINE CHRONICLE / NOVEMBER-DECEMBER 2010

A Word from your Pastor

In this last issue of the year, I would like to direct your attention to all that happened at Saint Katherine in 2010. It has been a wonderful year, filled with some great events: a huge Crab Feed, beautiful Easter services, a lovely Mothers Day Luncheon, a visit by Father Pavlos of the Saint Katherine Monastery on Mount Sinai, and of course, the biggest and most successful festival we have ever had. In addition, we were able to pay our bills in the midst of very difficult economic circumstances nationally.

As we turn our attention to the New Year however, I would like to expand our focus to something else. Yes, I hope everything will run as smoothly and successfully as it has this past year, but as we begin our planning, I would like us to think of approaching our life here at Saint Katherine from a different perspective.

Next year, rather than thinking of what we should do, let's concentrate on who we will be.

You see, I believe that in addition to being concerned with coordinating all the activities that happen in our beautiful little church, it is important for us to know why we are here. The goal for each one of us should be to answer the question: "Why do I go to Church and what does Christ mean to me?"

When our Lord was sleeping in the boat, the disciples, frightened from the fierce storm that had arisen, awoke Him with the words, "Master save us, we are perishing!" Then the Lord got up and "rebuked the wind and the sea." And tranquility was restored.

The Church is also a messenger of peace, a fount of tranquility for the souls who suffer from whatever causes anxiety. We go to Church because it is there that our souls find peace and future salvation.

Faithfully yours,

Father Dino

THE FEAST OF SAINT KATHERINE—This year, to allow for the fact that the Feast of Saint Katherine falls on Thanksgiving Day, we will celebrate the feast of our patron saint with a Vespers Liturgy on Wednesday night, November 24th at 7 PM only. Afterward the ladies of our Philoptochos Society will offer a special reception in the Tsakopoulos Hall, and area clergy have been invited. Please join in the celebration of Saint Katherine!

SAINT KATHERINE NAMEDAY LUNCHEON—This year we will celebrate our parish nameday with a festive luncheon in the Tsakopoulos Hall, on Sunday, November 21st, following the Divine Liturgy. The menu will include delicious barbeque chicken and all the trimmings for a donation of only $10. The children of our youngest dance groups will also entertain us with some beautiful Greek folk dances. Join us!

STEWARDSHIP – Look for your 2011 Stewardship pledge card in the mail and return it to the office this week. Remember, your pledge is the main way to support Saint Katherine as it does the Lord's work.

PARISH CHRISTMAS CARD – Don't forget to complete and return your form to have your family's name included in our annual Saint Katherine Christmas card. This is a wonderful way to send holiday greetings to your fellow Saint Katherine parishioners.

NO MORE FESTIVAL FLIES! – We hope you noticed this year during the festival, that we weren't beseged by the usual swarm of flies in the hall area. That's because we received a very thoughtful and helpful donation from George and Kim Demas. Earlier this year they provided and installed special fans over all the exterior doors in our hall that produced a "curtain of air" that kept all flying insects outdoors where they belong. Many thanks to George and Kim, this year the festival "ambience" award goes to you!

SAINT KATHERINE WEEKEND IN GREECE

I would like to formally express the appreciation of the entire parish to all the volunteers who worked so hard and to the donors and advertizers who provided some tremendous contributions, all of which ensured that we would hold the biggest and most successful Weekend In Greece annual festival in our parish's history.

Most of the bills have been paid and the donations have been counted, and the result is that we received just over $84,000 in total receipts and had about $20,000 in expenses to yield a net income of about $64,000 for Saint Katherine this year.

We continue to learn ways to improve and to refine the festival every year and we welcome any suggestions for next year's effort. For now, we want to thank everyone who helped so much this year and we hope that you will come through for us again next year. Our goal will be to hit the $100,000 mark in total income and I think that with everyone's help again, we can do it!

Again, thank you for everything you did for our Weekend In Greece and for Saint Katherine.

Sincerely,

Theodore Pantazis

Coordinator for the Parish Council

A POINT OF INFORMATION—The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America has updated its national mailing list. In complying with the request of the Archdiocese, we have sent our Parish mailing list to them. We have been promised that the names and addresses will kept in “strict confidence.” Should the Archdiocese make any financial appeals by use of our Parish mailing list, it is up to your discretion as to whether or not you wish to support their request. Please keep in mind that our Parish Ministry Budget allows for a generous contribution to the Archdiocese. Saint Katherine has consistently supported the Archdiocese as a response of your Stewardship offerings and various contributions through our Parish.

“Democracy destroys itself because it abuses its right to freedom and equality. It teaches its citizens to consider audacity as a right, lawlessness as a freedom, abrasive speech as equality, and anarchy as progress.”
